

SEVEN TEAMS FOR BOWLING HONORS

Inter-Church League Is Under Way with New Set of Rules.

SCHEDULE ANNOUNCED

The full schedule for the first half of the season of the Inter-church Bowling League has been announced, as well as the recently adopted rules governing the contests this year. The more important rules are those covering eligibility, registration and dues.

To be eligible to membership on any team one must be a member of the church or of some organization in the church he represents and must have attended some religious service of the church within a month of the date of any scheduled match in which he participates.

Each team must have at least three registered members who shall not be eligible to bowl on any other team.

Dues of team members for each half of the season are 50 cents.

All matches are scheduled on Monday and Friday evenings as in past years, except the final match of the first half on Tuesday, December 29, inasmuch as Christmas Day falls on the preceding Friday.

The second half of the season will be inaugurated immediately after the Christmas holidays and at the end of the season prizes will be awarded as follows:

First—Champion team for the full season.

Second—Highest individual average for full season.

Third—Highest individual scores for three games in one match.

Fourth—Highest individual score for a single game.

Members must bowl two-thirds of the full season's scheduled games to be eligible for a prize.

A second team has been entered by the Baptists this year. Another innovation appearing in the schedule is the matter of the new names adopted by the teams superseding the Senior and Junior designations of former years. Thus, the Presbyterian Seniors have become the Presbyterian Pilots; the Presbyterian Juniors, the Presbyterian Pep

ANNUAL MEETING

The annual meeting of the Narberth Branch of the Needlework Guild will be held on November 12, at the Lutheran Church, at 2 P. M. All contributors and friends are cordially invited to come and see the exhibition of garments.

We hope contributors will be unusually generous this year as there is such a great need for all kinds of garments for infants, hospitals, men, women and children.

Articles most needed—For men, women and children, good warm undergarments and socks and stockings in pairs, mittens, gloves, caps, sweaters, petticoats of dark flannel, nightwear and broad soled shoes. For infants, blankets slippers, petticoats, woolen jackets, woolen stockings and caps. For hospitals, all kinds of garments for out-going patients, small dark shoulder shawls, flannel sacks, wrappers, bed shoes, blankets, towels, sheets and pillow cases.

There is a great demand for outside wearing apparel.

All must be new of course.

JUNIOR COMMUNITY CLUB NOTES

"Hallowe'en is the time for revelry." So say we all, but the Juniors (and some Seniors) stole a march on folks this year and celebrated their party last Thursday evening, when, despite the rainy night, goodly number turned out. And oh, such clever costumes! There were tramps, dudes, ballet girls, old-fashioned girls, pierrots, farmerettes, little tots from ages two to six, grandmothers, spinsters, flappers and would-be swains. The "Virginia Reel" was much too irksome for the "coy maids of the 'sixties," but the "Charleston" was easily toed by these "old gals." The uncanny, weird and spooky ghost stories proved altogether too realistic for comfort. And with a Hallowe'en party, of course, goes Hallowe'en eats. The party was voted a howling success!

COMPLAIN OF PRANKS.

Many complaints were registered with Lower Merion police this week by irate residents against Hallowe'en pranks perpetrated upon them by youngsters. Deflated automobile tires, broken windows and missing porch furniture were the most frequent things reported.

"Hild Hallowe'en fun is fine," said one resident airing his complaint, "but it isn't fun when you return to your parked car after visiting friends to find the air out of all your tires and some of your car windows broken. That is some of the vandalism practiced by the gang of boys that parade the streets."

Parents were requested to curb their mauling offsprings.

HEARING GRANTED BUS PROTESTERS

Wynnewood and Merion Will Oppose New Route on November 12.

Another hearing on the application of the Philadelphia Suburban Transit Company for permission to run a new bus route down Wynnewood Road, through Merion and Wynnewood, will be held before the Public Service Commission in Room 496, Philadelphia City Hall, on November 12. This hearing will be primarily to give residents of Merion and Wynnewood, who violently object to the new line, a chance to voice their protests.

These residents have been bombarding the Public Service Commission at Harrisburg with letters of protest ever since they first learned of the application six weeks ago. All who wrote have been informed of the hearing by Secretary George C. Anderson, of the Lower Merion Commissioners. Indications are that a large delegation of them will be on hand to oppose the bus line. Representatives of the Wynnewood and the Merion Civic Associations will also attend to protest.

The protesters claim that Wynnewood Road is too narrow for big busses and that use of them on that thoroughfare would be a public menace. They also insist that there is no need for the line as present means of transportation are adequate.

Commissioner Andrew MacDonald, of North Ardmore, whose aid was sought by the Wynnewood protesters, is getting data from Engineer John Dunne, of the Township Highway Department, on the width of Wynnewood Road and the angle of turns located thereon. This information will be presented when protesters are called upon to give testimony to support their contentions that the road is narrow and dangerous for bus traffic.

The Philadelphia Suburban Transit Company now operates the line which runs to Bryn Mawr from Overbrook over Montgomery avenue. It would terminate its Montgomery avenue route at Anderson avenue in Ardmore and would run the new route for which it has made petition to Bryn Mawr instead.

MR. WILSON ELECTED

Principal George H. Wilson, of the Narberth Schools, was elected number of points at the close of the contests. Each second-class Scout should be ready to compete in either knots, signaling or fire building. As a climax a treasure hunt will be staged, in which every Scout will take part.

At this time the individuals of the Narberth Troop will receive their "TA" badges. These are given to the Scout troop which has advanced more in one year than any other troop in the district.

RECEIVING CONGRATULATIONS

Mr. and Mrs. C. M. Beltz, of Brookhurst avenue, are being congratulated on the birth of a daughter, Gertrude Elva, on October 21.

Mr. and Mrs. John A. Snyder are receiving congratulations on the birth of a son, William.

MIDSHIPMEN

Jack Cunningham and Donald B. Heckel were two Narberth boys who received their diplomas from the training ship Annapolis this week.

Mrs. Adolph Vogel is entertaining her mother, Mrs. John Whitten, of Huntingdon, West Virginia.

SWING TO BOYD'S WAGON APPARENT

Results of Former Senator's Conferences Begin to Show.

MacDONALD NOT OUT

With the general election on Tuesday holding the centre of the political stage, talk about probable line-ups and fights in the May primaries next spring have been forced into the back ground this week. But still the gossip persists.

Indications that the county Republican organization will swing to former Senator James S. Boyd, of Norristown, as candidate to oppose State Senator Fletcher W. Stites, of Narberth, are becoming more and more apparent. Boyd has been spending much time touring the county interviewing friends and appearing at meetings of political workers. Two of these appearances were made in Lower Merion this week when he addressed first a meeting of the Lower Merion Republican Association, at the General Wayne Inn, and later a gathering of the township Republican Committee at the Green Hill Farms Hotel.

The results of these conferences and meetings are being felt. At Norristown, headquarters of County Leader Charles Johnson, it is said that scores of letters are being received urging organization support of Boyd.

Commissioner Andrew MacDonald, of North Ardmore, was considering entering the field, but these were dispelled yesterday when the commissioner declared that he is not considered as becoming a candidate.

There is still much speculation on the stand that Representative Ludlow, of Ardmore, will take in the spring fight. "Should he seek re-election it is unlikely that he will be accorded support by the county organization."

In Norristown a week ago, while talking to acquaintances, he was asked about his plans. Jestingly he declared, "I refuse to be interviewed. I have nothing to say."

Other repeated attempts to get in touch with him to secure a statement of his intentions have failed.

In the fight for the assembly seat for the first district, which is composed largely of Lower Merion, Treasurer Joseph J. Skelton, Jr., is as yet the only avowed candidate in the field.

Some rumors gained circulation in Ardmore the past week that

GIRL SCOUT NEWS

Last Saturday morning 300 Girl Scouts of Main Line Troop went to Logan Square, where pictures were taken of the girls in the formation of the words "I Care" and "Welfare." Thirty girls of the Narberth Troop were present. A special court of awards had been planned, but owing to the weather it was not held. However, 20 merit badges were received by members of the Narberth Troop.

At the Scout meeting held this week the Scouts had the unexpected pleasure of hearing Miss Ruth Kwok, a native of China, now studying at the University of Pennsylvania. Instead of preparing a speech on a special topic, the Scouts asked her questions, concerning China, and the answers formed her talk.

On November 9, at 1 o'clock a Scout Rally will take place and points will be given to the winners. Each troop will compete to see which secures the highest by the director of the Lutheran Choir, assisted by an expert accompanist. Mr. Snyder is a fine musical educator and trainer of choirs and has ability as a vocalist. It will be well worth attending. A silver offering will be taken.

CHAPERONES AT HOUSE PARTY

Mrs. J. T. Howenstein, 129 Chestnut avenue, Narberth, and Mrs. J. E. Burrell, 507 Valley View Road, Merion, have returned home after spending the weekend at State College, Pa., where they acted as chaperones for the house party given at Phi Gamma Delta Fraternity house.

Wohlert-Kaeber Council Scrap Only Election Contest Tuesday

Democratic Candidate, Making Strong Bid for Split Ballots, Backed by Street Group.

With calm seas and clear skies promised in most parts of next Tuesday's election in Narberth, one contest has arisen which promises to enliven an otherwise dull election.

Anton Emil Wohlert, Democrat and political stormy petrel, is making a determined effort to break the Republican slate for Council and win the seat at the expense of Clarence Kaeber.

Mr. Wohlert is backed by the Democrats, by the Street Improvement Association, and by those of Narberth's voters who have a crow to pick with the present Councilmanic body.

At the September primaries Mr. Wohlert ran 21 votes behind Mr. Kaeber for nomination on the Republican ballot. The four Republican nominees are Robert F. Wood, Daniel Leitch, John R. Hall and Clarence Kaeber. The Democrats nominated Messrs. Wood, Wohlert, Hall and Leitch.

Mr. Wohlert's campaign is built about several points. He claims that Council does not permit citizens to attend all parts of all meetings; that Mr. Kaeber did not back the street paving loan, and, above all, that it is time the "old crowd" was ousted from Council.

On the other hand, members of Council who have been backing Mr. Kaeber declare that Mr. Wohlert's platform is not founded on fact; that Council meetings are open to all citizens who wish either to witness or present matters at the sessions, and that there have been but a half dozen brief executive sessions in a number of years. Councilmen also point to the fact that under the regime of President W. R. D. Hall the finances of the Borough have been brought from chaos to comparative stability.

Of the five candidates only one, Daniel Leitch, is at present a member of Council. President Hall, Hugh W. Brown and Walton M. Wentz did not run for re-election.

An interesting point in the campaign is the series of charges and counter-charges that confusion of names made a big difference in primary results. Mr. Wohlert believes that many voted for H. L. Woehling, thinking they were casting their ballot for him. Mr. Woehling's friends say that a substantial number of South Side votes went the other way because of a similar confusion.

In his advertisement Mr. Wohlert claims that many of Mr. Kaeber's tallies came to him because the voters believed it was J. J. Cabrey. On the other hand, the "old crowd" avers that the popularity of the present Council leader, W. R. D. Hall, gave many mistaken votes to his less known namesake, John R. Hall.

And so it goes. The discussions

WOMAN'S COMMUNITY CLUB TO HOLD FIRST MEETING

Convention Report and Travelog to Be Features.

The first regular meeting of the Woman's Community Club will be held in the Y. M. C. A. at 2:30 P. M., Tuesday, November 3. This is to be a very informal meeting, just a homey get-together, with an entertainment entirely by our own members. You know that kind is sure to be good.

Mrs. Jacobs will tell us something about the recent convention of the Pennsylvania Federation of Woman's Clubs at Wilkes-Barre, where she represented the Narberth Club. Don't fear that this will be the contrary. Mrs. Jacobs wants to convince you that attendance at the State convention is a stimulating experience, so you will all want to go next year. Mrs. Robert Fellows Wood is going to sketch for us her wanderings in England last summer. Those who have talked with Mrs. Wood know how vividly her enthusiasm reconstructs the impressions of those busy weeks. Mrs. W. F. Horner has promised to let us hear her unusual talent—whistling.

A number of our members will join in a political symposium, or Who's Who in the November election.

Mrs. J. A. England is to be hostess, so the "cakes and tea" are assured.

DINNER-DANCE

The Narberth Tennis Association will hold their annual dinner-dance on Friday evening, November 20, in Elm Hall. It is expected that every club member and many of their friends will attend and provisions are being made to care for a capacity crowd.

As in years past the winners of the various club events during the past season will be presented with prizes. The dinner will be followed by dancing, with music by the Gilpin Orchestra of Narberth.

Reservations should be made at once through W. D. R. Evans or any one of the entertainment committee, which is as follows: E. A. Shubert, E. Achterman and John B. Wine.

DECLARE DIVIDEND

The Board of Directors of The Merion Title and Trust Company, at their meeting held Monday evening, declared the regular 4 per cent. dividend, payable November 2, to stockholders of record at close of business September 30. They also transferred from undivided profits to surplus the sum of $100,000.

LOCAL D. A. R. MEMBERS TO ATTEND CONFERENCE

State Convention to Be Held in Philadelphia Next Week.

The twenty-ninth annual State conference of the Pennsylvania Daughters of the American Revolution, on invitation of the Associated Chapters of Philadelphia and vicinity, meets in Philadelphia next week. The sessions will be held in the Bellevue-Stratford. On Tuesday evening, November 3, a dinner will be given by the Regents Club of Philadelphia in honor of the president general, Mrs. Anthony Wayne Cook, and the State regent, Mrs. John Brown Heron, and State and national officers are guests. After the dinner Mr. H. H. Arnold, U. S. A., chief of information division of the air service, will give a lecture illustrated by motion pictures.

The formal opening of the conference comes on Wednesday morning. At night there will be a musical in the ballroom, followed by a formal reception to officers and members. Business sessions will be held Thursday morning and a trip to Valley Forge in the afternoon. Thursday evening the speakers are Brigadier General Amos Fries, of the Chemical Warfare Service, and Harry T. Atwood, president of the Constitution Anniversary Society. Friday the State luncheon precedes the closing session.

A large attendance is expected from the chapters in Pennsylvania, which includes more than 10,000 members.

The delegates from Dr. Benjamin Rush Chapter of Narberth are: Mrs. F. B. Du Maus and Miss Marie Corin. Mrs. H. M. Chalfant, Mrs. F. H. Hewitt and Mrs. Charles M. Irwin are members of the Hospitality Committee.

Mrs. C. Arley Farmer, Mrs. John C. Nash and Mrs. Joseph Miller will act as pages from the Dr. Benjamin Rush Chapter.

OVER A MILLION DEPOSITS

The Merion Title and Trust Company passed the one million mark in deposits for the Narberth office. A report to the Board of Directors at their meeting Monday evening showed that the deposits for Narberth reached the total of $1,059,000. This office was opened in August, 1915, and has shown a steady growth. Narberth has just cause to be proud of this institution and the fine showing made.

MANY ACTIVITIES AT JUNIOR HIGH

Students Organize Twelve New Clubs Under Faculty Advisers.

ISSUE PAPER MONTHLY

With a new group of students as reporters and editors the Narberth Junior High School launches this week the first issue of its regular weekly school department in "Our Town."

The 12 clubs which have been organized this year have made school life more pleasant. The clubs have meetings every Thursday afternoon. The following are the clubs and the teachers in charge:

Glee Club—Miss Frickie.
Travelers' Club—Miss Eckbert.
Arts and Crafts—Miss Jantzer.
Boys' Camp Cookery—Miss Eames.

Junior Dramatic Club—Miss Yarnall.

Senior Dramatic Club—Mrs. Elsbree.

Scribblers' Club—Miss Chapman.

Classical Club—Miss Tyson.

Science Club—Mr. Oerlein.

Aesthetic Dancing—Miss Church.

Boys' Gym Club—Mr. Oerlein.

Current Events—Mr. Burnham.

Each Friday a different club is giving a program in assembly to make it more interesting. In assembly the 25th a few boys of the ninth grade dramatized a play entitled "A Midsummer Night's Dream." The characters were:

Quince—Francis Pugh.
Bottom (Pyramus)—Malcolm Forsyth.

Flute (Thisbe)—Dick Banks.

Starveling—Vestus Spindler.

Snout—Chick Ross.

Snug—Jerry Casey.

The Glee Club also gave an entertainment. An announcement was made by Nellie Fratantoni, the secretary of the Glee Club. A duet entitled "Billy Boy" was sung by Evelyn Jeffries (taking the boy part) and Virginia Douglass (taking the girl part). It certainly was appreciated by all of the pupils.

Harry Messec, a graduate of the class of 1925, visited the school and sang a solo for us. Mr. Spratt accompanied him.

The Travelers' Club also has accomplished a great deal. Two of the members, Eleanor Templeman and Jewel Fittipaldi, have collected dolls from the other members of the club and have dressed them. They sent them away to the Red Cross for the poor children.

The Scribblers' Club, under the charge of Miss Chapman, entertained the pupils in assembly on the 21st. Many original poems written by the members of the club

CELEBRATE REFORMATION

Local Lutherans Join in World-Wide Event.

It ought to be the gladdest message to the American people to remind them of the return of the reformation season. For the nailing of the 95 theses on the church door of Wittenberg in 1517 and the preaching of the gospel of civil, religious and church freedom began that mighty movement of the sixteenth century. Much meant the deliverance of the church from bondage, men's souls from darkness and sent a wave of wondrous salvation and liberty throughout the world; all Protestant churches are coming more and more to some general specific observance of this great time of the year and they should, because it is rendering thanks to God for the largest and most precious blessings of heaven—a free church! a free nation, and a free salvation!

We Lutherans will observe this memorable event with special services and a clarion call through the greatest sermon they can preach.

On November 8, in the morning, the Lutherans of Philadelphia will hold a reformation celebration, and November 10, in the Metropolitan Opera House of that city, at 8 in the evening, Dr. Tulloss, the president of Arthurborg College, Springfield, Ohio, will speak. That great assembly room is open and free to all. An offering will be taken, solely to meet the expenses. Everybody is invited.

were read by some of the pupils. Later an original play written by Alice Monks was dramatized. It was appreciated by all of the audience. The program ended by the school singing a song led by our music teacher, Miss Frickie.

The Junior Dramatic Club also has had its turn. It dramatized for us a court scene in the days of Columbus. Many poems were read appropriate to the holiday by the members of the club.

The library, in charge of Mrs. Elsbree this year, is far better than it was last year. Much outside reading is done by the pupils of the school and many reference books are present. Altogether, there are 1500 volumes.

Philip Reger, in Miss Echbert's class, has had an operation for tonsils. We all hope it isn't serious and that he will return to school soon.

"The Compass, the school paper, which was first published by the class of 1925, is now being carried on by the senior class. The first copy has been issued. The size is the same as it was last year, only with a few more pages. The subscription to the paper is 75 cents per year or 10 cents per copy and can be obtained by mailing the money to 223 Price avenue or giving it to Bob Vallette or Malcolm Forsythe. We hope that many of the readers of "Our Town" will also read The Compass, as it is the first publication by the Junior High School of Narberth.

The staff of The Compass is as follows:

Editor, Frederick Bates; assistant editor, Kathryn Smith; literary, Richard Banks, Helga Wohler; news, Ernestine Hunt, Elizabeth Ferry; athletic association, Stanley Thomas, Bernice Piercy; jokes, Robert Caldwell, Dorothy Clevenger; business managers, Malcolm Forsythe, Robert Vallette; circulation, Elbert Matby; faculty director, Miss Chapman.

On Saturday, October 31, the boys' soccer team will play Girard College Junior High team. The game will start at 2.30. We expect to see a large crowd present. Mr. Oerlein, the coach, will accompany the team there.

The Board of Education, at its stated meeting on Monday, decided to include Thursday and Friday, November 26-27, in the Thanks-giving vacation. The Christmas vacation will extend from the close of school on Tuesday, December 22, to 8.40 A. M. Monday, January 4, 1926.

The board has recently purchased a new projection lantern with an attachment for showing film pictures. The Classical Club will use it for its program at assembly on Friday.

LUTHERAN MUSICAL

We just want to remind the public of the musical to be given in the Lutheran Church on Friday evening, November 6, at 8 o'clock, to the Executive Committee of the Montgomery County Teachers' Institute at its sessions in Norristown last week.

CHRISTMAS SAVINGS

The Merion Title and Trust Company will not receive payments after November 25 on account of Christmas Club savings. Announcement to this effect was made this week.

DECEMBER 5TH

Delay the selection of that gift until December 5.

The Methodist Bazaar will have a wonderful variety of unusual hard-to-find gifts to suit any member of the family.

arising out of the Democratic campaign should clear up these mistakes of identity and permit each candidate to sail under his own colors.

Narberth's most recent political bloc, the Street Improvement Association, have been working hard against Mr. Kaerber. Last week a letter was mailed to every member of the association, signed by the treasurer, M. C. Peter, Jr. It reads:

"The vote of the members of this Association and their friends was clearly apparent at the primary election, but it is now necessary to remind them that the rest of the job must be completed on election day, next Tuesday. The underlying issues have become clearer since the primary. It is a struggle for the control of the next Council. If Wood, Leitch, Hall and Wohler are elected next Tuesday the next Council will be in the hands of a new group, which is the same group that conducted the successful fight for the new streets. Mr. Kaerber, who won the Republican nomination from Mr. Wohler by only 21 votes, is elected, the next Council will be controlled by the same group that opposed the street improvement and succeeded in levying the 30 per cent. assessment of costs against you.

"Nothing in this letter is intended to reflect upon Mr. Kaerber personally, but it is true that he is closely affiliated with the crowd that was opposed to street improvement. The issue is clear. Take your choice. Remember that, regardless of your personal preferences among the candidates, it is almost useless to elect Wood and Leitch if you do not at the same time elect Hall and Wohler.

"At the primary polls reports were circulated that this Association had endorsed other candidates. That is not so. We need Wood, Leitch, Hall and Wohler in the next Council. Not two, or even three of them, but all four. We did not ask you to spend money or time in the fight that got your street improved, but now we do ask you, regardless of party affiliations, to mark your ballot with extra care and make sure that all of our candidates and no others get your votes."

Save for the fight in Council, no other contest is looked for. Mrs. Abbie W. Nickerson is on both ballots for Tax Collector; Henry A. Frye is unopposed for Burgess; F. R. Gifford, for Auditor, and H. C. Fritsch, for Justice of the Peace. The Republicans nominated Mrs. Anna R. Van Auken and Walter Steckbeck for School Board, while the Democrats pin their faith in Mrs. Van Auken and Jesse S. Harris, present incumbent.

The polling places for Tuesday's election are: First district, Elm Hall; Second district, northwest corner Essex and Haverford avenues; Third district, Boy Scout house, south of Station.

A PARTY

Raymond Watrous, Jr., aged 4, of 215 Avon Road, is having a costume party for his friends at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

LOWER MERION DOWNS
WEST CHESTER OPPONENT

Bud Miller Leads Main Liners 12 to 9 Victory, Scoring Winning Tally.

The Lower Merion High School football team won a hard-fought game from the West Chester High School at the former's field Saturday, 12-9. The contest was played in weather conditions of the worst kind, a steady downpour making the battle somewhat akin to a swimming meet. The final result of the muddy battle was always in doubt, the lead shifting several times.

Bud Miller was the real star of the conflict. His smashing off-tackle plays, together with his heady generalship, was the big feature of the Lower Merion's victory. Together with Miller's great playing, the work of Harris Fort was also outstanding.

The visiting eleven had several surprises to offer to the suburban eleven. The first of these was Harmon, whose accurate passing resulted in the lone touchdown that the West Chester men were able to get. Henry, the lanky end of the losers, was the most flashy player they had. Besides blocking an extra-point try and several punts, he was in on every play. He was outclassed in this last respect, however, by Gene Kuen, the leader of the Main Line team.

FAIR PRICE POLICY

The newspapers have printed several reports of the inflated prices charged by some retail dealers for their coal at the present time.

Frankly, there have been opportunities for getting abnormal profits. But we realize that such a policy is very foolish, and nothing more than bad business.
We are building for permanence rather than the immediate gain of the moment.

A comparison of our prices anywhere in Philadelphia will substantiate our claim of a fair price policy.

LIBRARY NEWS

The October Book List is Presented.

While the October book list of additions to the Narberth Community Library is rather small, nearly all of the books are by well-known and popular authors. Wells' and Hutchinson's newest books are on the list and are already much in demand. The first book of "The Peasants"—Autumn—was brought a couple of months ago, with the promise that if the library patrons enjoyed it, the other three volumes would be procured. The librarian is pleased to say that the demand has been so great that Winter was added and now, this month Spring and Summer.

Following is the complete list of books purchased during the month of October:

Christina Alberta's Father by H. G. Wells. The story of a very modern girl and her timid, but fanciful father, who imagines himself "Sargon, King of Kings."

Emigrants by Johan Bojer. Translated from the Norwegian by A. G. Jayne. Most of the action takes place in the American Middle West.

Greenery Street by Dennis Mackail. A clever story of the first year of married life.

Immortal Girl by Bertha Ruch. A romantic novel.

One Increasing Purpose by A. S. M. Hutchinson. The quest for something that will satisfy the hunger of the soul.

Queer Judson by Joseph C. Lincoln. A lovable blunderer who finally finds his place in life.

Ruben and Ivy Sen by Louise Jordan Milne. The delightful Mrs. Sen (of Mr. and Mrs. Sen) and her children are the central figures in this new story, which treats of the results of marriage between East and West.

Runaway by Floyd Dell. Lives of a father and daughter. An interesting pair this father and daughter of vagabond spirit.

Venetian Glass Nephew by Elinor Wylie. An enchanting tale of love and witchcraft in the tapestried green-lagooned Venice of the eighteenth century.

Going to Florida by Frank M. Dunbaugh, Jr. A book giving routes to and excursions from that famous winter resort.

Jungle Days by William Beebe. A mass of interesting and amazing information—at once scientific and poetic.

ANNOUNCE NEW RULES FOR CHURCH BOWLING LEAGUE

Boys; the Methodist Seniors, the Methodist Marathons; while the Methodist Juniors have emerged as the Methodist Meteors. Similarly, the Baptist Seniors have been rechristened the Baptist Battlers and the new Baptist constellation has appeared under the title of Baptist Boosters. Not to be outdone in the matter of awe-inspiring names, the Lutherans have come through as the Lutheran Lions.

The complete schedule for the season follows:

Oct. 19—Pres. Pilots vs. Methodist Marathons.
Oct. 23—Methodist Meteors vs. Pres. Pen Boys.
Oct. 26—Pres. Pen Boys vs. Baptist Battlers.
Oct. 30—Pres. Pilots vs. Baptist Boosters.
Nov. 2—Meth. Marathons vs. Meth. Meteors.
Nov. 6—Lutheran Lions vs. Pres. Pen Boys.
Nov. 9—Baptist Battlers vs. Baptist Boosters.
Nov. 13—Pres. Pilots vs. Methodist Marathons.
Nov. 16—Meth. Marathons vs. Lutheran Lions.
Nov. 20—Pres. Pen Boys vs. Baptist Boosters.
Nov. 23—Pres. Pilots vs. Baptist Battlers.
Nov. 27—Meth. Meteors vs. Lutheran Lions.
Dec. 3—Meth. Marathons vs. Baptist Boosters.
Dec. 7—Pres. Pilots vs. Pres. Pen Boys.
Dec. 11—Meth. Meteors vs. Baptist Boosters.
Dec. 14—Lutheran Lions vs. Baptist Battlers.
Dec. 18—Meth. Marathons vs. Pres. Pen Boys.
Dec. 21—Meth. Meteors vs. Baptist Battlers.
Dec. 25—Pres. Pilots vs. Lutheran Lions.
Dec. 29—Meth. Marathons vs. Baptist Boosters.

The alleys at the Baptist Church on which the games are played have been put in good condition for the season and will be properly maintained throughout. The various players and teams are looking forward to some excellent scores as the season progresses.

Incidentally a word about the alleys will be in order for the benefit of the newcomers in the community. While the Baptist alleys are necessarily private in nature they are open every evening of the week except Wednesday and unless otherwise reserved to members of the Interchurch Bowling League and their friends from 7:30 until 10. Newcomers in the community who like to bowl are urged to come around and get acquainted with the men in the league. Membership in the league is by no means limited to team members. The alleys are reserved for the league matches on the dates scheduled, of course, but ordinarily Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings are open.

Since the last issue of "Our Town" two additional matches have been played, in the first of which the Baptist Battlers took three straight from the Presbyterian Pep Boys. The third game was a tie, but was taken by the Battlers in an extra frame. In the second match the Methodist Meteors also took three straight from the Presbyterian Pep Boys. The scores were as follows:

BAPTIST BATTLERS	PRES. PEP BOYS
Reim	Watts
Williamson	Thompson
Smedley	Hold

Voters:—

Do you want a New Regime in Council?
If so, vote for A. E. WOHLERT

FACE THE REAL ISSUE when you go to the polls on Tuesday. What do you want—a council in control of the old crowd or a council with the balance of power in progressive, independent and fearless hands?

Vote for me if you want a new council. Vote for Mr. Kaerber if you want the old regime. I am an Independent running for Council on the Democratic ticket. In the Primary election my name was on both ballots and 365 Republicans voted for me. I am the same man now that I was then. Being on the Democratic ticket does not change a man morally or mentally.

Messrs. Leitch and Wood ran ahead of all others on the primary, which indicates that a great majority of the people want men of independent minds in Council. I want those people and all others to bear in mind that, if I am elected the usefulness of Messrs. Wood and Leitch in Council will be promoted and increased. If I am not elected, they will be blocked and checked on important issues.

It gets down to this: Do you want the control of the next Council to be in the hands of four independent men (Leitch, Wood, Hall and Wohlert), or in the hands of the old crowd (Griswold, Redifer, Henderson and their new protege, Mr. Kaerber)? Which do you want, the new crowd or the old one in control of the next Council? A vote for me is a vote for the new; a vote for Mr. Kaerber is a vote for the old. That's the real issue and there's no getting away from it!

My candidacy is endorsed by the Narberth Street Improvement Association, which is solely responsible for forcing through the old crowd in Council the street improvements which we now enjoy. I worked with and contributed time and money to the Street Association's campaign. Reports have been circulated that Mr. Kaerber "attended the street meetings." That is not so. If he favored the street improvements, none of us active workers ever saw or heard him at it when the campaign was on.

His present active political backers were consistently opposed to the street program, and if it had not been for their stubborn stand in Council, after the bond issue was passed by the voters, the residents on the unpaved streets would not have had the unnecessary and unjust charge of 30 per cent. loaded on them. That's the truth!

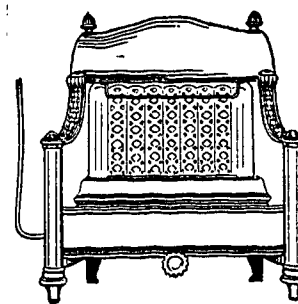

Many voted for Mr. Kaerber at the primaries under the impression that he was Mr. J. J. Cabrey. Don't be misled by a similarity of names. Mr. Cabrey is an entirely different man, and if he was running, I would not oppose him.
